

VIVRE VOYAGER

(in)vivre

THE ARTIST'S WAY Since 2002, Ralph Rucci has shown his exquisite couture collection in Paris—the only American designer officially invited to join this illustrious international contingent. To this rare achievement, the talented artist now adds an acclaimed gallery show of extraordinary paintings that echo his ongoing exploration of sumptuous materials like chiffon and cashmere.
